

ACA LAUNCHES ANNUAL PENSION TRENDS SURVEY QUESTIONNAIRE

7 July 2020: The Association of Consulting Actuaries (ACA) would like to invite you to take part in the ACA Annual Survey on Workplace Pensions and Saving and have your say in the determination of public policy initiatives in the pensions sector.

The results of the ACA survey will feature in reports that go before Government Ministers, Officials, Regulators and the like, as well as the wider public. The survey looks for broad answers and will only take approximately 20 minutes to complete, with most answers being tick box based.

Individual responses will be treated in the strictest confidence and only aggregated results will be reported.

We will send all respondents a free online copy of the survey results and a final report with all the findings.

Your data

Please note that, when you complete the survey, the Association of Consulting Actuaries will hold your name, company and email address on our database for the purposes of conducting market research and to send you a copy of the results. If you do not wish to be contacted with regard to the survey results or again, please contact acahelp@aca.org.uk and you will be removed from the ACA survey database.

The deadline for completion of survey is Friday 31st July 2020.

NOTE FOR EDITORS

About the Association of Consulting Actuaries (ACA)

Members of the ACA provide advice to thousands of pension schemes, including most of the country's largest schemes. Members of the Association are all qualified actuaries and all actuarial advice given is subject to the Actuaries' Code. Advice given to clients is independent and impartial. ACA members include the scheme actuaries to schemes covering the majority of members of private sector defined benefit pension schemes. The ACA is the representative body for UK consulting actuaries, whilst the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries is the professional body.
