

“In relation to EU trends the session deals with:

- the most recent developments on EU-wide solvency for pension funds and the likelihood of future requirements in this area
- the latest draft IORP II Pensions Directive and likely next steps
- A review of developments in the EU pensions market over the last 12 months and an identification of any common trends”